

Dear Friends of Ravenna Strings

Due to the public health situation our Winter concert which had been re-scheduled to April has been cancelled.

*Rehearsals for Spring term were to begin the first week of April, however it is not expected that the community center will be open by then. Please check the Seattle Parks website for updates:
<https://www.seattle.gov/parks>*

We will be back making live music as soon as we can!