

It's On!

Ravenna Strings Returns!

Great news, everybody! We will be returning to Phinney Center, 6532 Phinney Ave. N, right after Labor Day.

Ravenna Second Strings (a.k.a. the Monday group) will start Monday September 12 from 7:00pm to 8:30pm with Nathan Harrison and run through November 14, with a Concert that week (probably Thursday November 17).

Ravenna Strings (the group formerly known as the Wednesday group) will start Thursday September 15 from 7:00pm to 8:30pm with Joseph Pollard White and run through November 17, with a Concert (probably that last session).

Registration will be through Brown Paper Tickets:

<https://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/5522659>

The regular fee for the term will be $150.

The reduced fee- for students, seniors, service members, financial hardship, etc.- will be $90

We will also have a 'pay what you wish' option. This is best for folks who either want/need to pay less (e.g., can't make all the rehearsals but want to participate) or who want to pay more (e.g. you can easily afford to). NOTE: if you pay more, the extra amount does not count as a contribution for tax purposes.

Currently, masks are optional at the Phinney Center.

In other news, we have filed paperwork to begin the process of creating RAVENNA STRINGS as a non-profit corporation in Washington State. Our next step will be to create a Board of Trustees. I have contacted a number of people who have indicated to me their interest in serving. If you are interested and I have not contacted you, feel free to contact me.

I am very excited about our return and really appreciate everyone's patience as we have ridden out the Covid storm. See you in September!
